“Music gives a soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination and life to everything.”
Plato

‘Rhythm and Voice’ in term 3 will introduce students to a varied repertoire of music while engaging them in fun activities that will enhance their creative, rhythmic and expressive abilities and develop their understanding of pitch, rhythm, resonance, dynamics, form and structure, contributing to their overall intellectual, artistic and social development.

Students will have the opportunity to explore meaning and interpretation as they create ensembles, reflect and respond to music in a fun, holistic setting which will enhance their music appreciation and sensitivity while fostering teamwork and collaboration.

Students will develop aural skills through Singing and vocal exercises and gain an understanding of the physiology of voice production.

Music enhances creativity, cognition and academic achievement across the curriculum especially in the areas of Mathematics and English.

Minoli has many years experience in the Performing Arts and is a London qualified instructor with a passion for Drama and Singing with an academic background in Linguistics, Media, Literature and Communication.
